Westerners don't know much about European colonialism in Africa, and what we do know, it's from the European perspective. This short read establishes the colonial history (which was surprisingly recent in my view, beginning in 1880), reactions from the people and leaders, and the impact of its relatively short history on the continent (1880-1970).

BOAHEN AFRICAN PERSPECTIVES ON COLONIALISM PDF

Albert Kwadwo Adu Boahen (24 May 1932 – 24 May 2006) was a Ghanaian academic, historian, and politician. He was an academic at the University of Ghana from 1959 to 1990, from 1971 onwards as a professor. As a politician, he notably was a candidate in the 1992 Ghanaian presidential election, representing the main opposition New Patriotic Party.

In this book, one of the pioneers of twentieth century African history examines the perceptions and responses of Africans to European colonialism of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century. This edition of Boahen's text, originally published in 1989, is contextualized in a new foreword by John Lonsdale, updating some of Boahen's findings and interpretations while maintaining that the "best, totally unambiguous, legacy of this republication would surely be the inspiration of a new ...
