These are the two basic folds in origami. Pretty much every fold is either a mountain fold, a valley fold or a combination of the two. With a Mountain Fold the crease bends the paper down and the crease resembles a mountain. With a Valley Fold the crease bends the paper up and the crease resembles a valley.

The valley fold is one of the most basic folds. If you've ever done any origami then you will have made a valley fold whether you know it or not. In a traditional origami diagram, you may find a valley fold is indicated with dashed lines. To make a valley fold, simply fold the paper towards you.

3 BASIC ORIGAMI FOLDS FOR BEGINNERS. — Gathering Beauty
The most basic of all origami folds is the valley fold. The valley fold gets its name because it makes the paper sink down like a river valley. In a traditional origami diagram, a valley fold is indicated with dashed lines. To make a valley fold, simply fold part of the paper towards you and crease along the dashed line.
