Following on from Writers at Work: The Paragraph and Writers at Work: the Short Composition, Writers at Work: The Essay will teach the basics of academic essay writing to intermediate-level students. In Writers at Work: The Essay, college and university students use the process approach to write different genres of essays common at the post-secondary level, the most important being expository writing, persuasive writing, and timed essay exams. Each chapter uses the same five-step approach to writing that is used in the two lower-level books. In each chapter, students analyze a model essay, noticing key organizational and linguistic features; brainstorm ideas; write multiple drafts; revise their work; engage in peer reviews; and share their finished work. Chapters recycle and build upon previously taught material.

These are excellent tactics, giving the student many different perspectives in their search for a solution." "What the book strives to provide are instructions on how to focus on the ideas presented and then how to turn those focused responses into written results. The concepts posed are realistic and the authors take great pains to make sure the examples the students are given are positive influences on how the students think and respond in writing." "I love it, it helped me with the real test. Highly recommended, very useful, well organized, a lot of new vocabulary in each essay." "Excellent book, helped me a lot with my English composition. I would entirely recommend this book. Really clean and great writing process"
