Stop Asking Jesus into Your Heart. by J.D. Greear. If there were a world record for the "number of times asking Jesus into your heart," I'm pretty sure I would hold it. I've probably "prayed the prayer" more than five thousand times. Every time was sincere, but I was never quite sure I had gotten it right.

"Stop Asking Jesus into your Heart" is a quick and easy read of only about 120 pages. J. D. Greear's book isn't what I would call meaty or theologically deep, but it is sound and accessible to the typical Christian. I would recommend it to anyone who has had ongoing struggles with doubts about their salvation.

The author of the article pointed out that the Bible calls us to believe in Jesus for eternal life, not ask Jesus into your heart. He gave seven reasons why we should stop using that idea when presenting the Gospel to others. So it was with interest that I recently read a book called Stop Asking Jesus Into Your Heart by J. D. Greear.

"Stop Asking Jesus Into Your Heart" is J.D. Greear's attempt (and a good one at that) to let believers and unbelievers know exactly where they stand with God (12). He attempts to demonstrate to the follower of Jesus Christ how they can base their assurance on a promise God gave once for all in Christ and not on the fleeting memory of a prayer they once prayed (12).

Don't stop asking Jesus into your heart! But, by all means, clearly communicate what is meant by such statements. In case you've been out of the theological loop, there has been a discussion in recent years about whether or not it is "biblical" for someone to "ask Jesus into his or her heart.". Actually, the conversation has likely been around as long as the language.

That's the question J. D. Greear tackles in his latest book Stop Asking Jesus Into Your Heart: How to Know for Sure You Are Saved. Published by B & H Publishing officially on February 1, 2013,...

"After countless conversations with Christians of all ages, [the author] has concluded that a lack of assurance is epidemic"--P. [4] of cover.

"If there were a Guinness Book of World Records entry for 'amount of times having prayed the sinner's prayer,' I'm pretty sure I'd be a top contender," says pastor and author J. D. Greear. He struggled for many years to gain an assurance of salvation and eventually learned he was not alone. "Lack of assurance" is epidemic among evangelical Christians. In Stop Asking Jesus Into Your Heart, J. D. shows that faulty ways of present- ing the gospel are a leading source of the confusion. Our presentations may not be heretical, but they are sometimes misleading. The idea of "asking Jesus into your heart" or "giving your life to Jesus" often gives false assurance to those who are not saved—and keeps those who genuinely are saved from fully embracing that reality. Greear unpacks the doctrine of assurance, showing that salvation is a posture we take to the promise of God in Christ, a posture that begins at a certain point and is maintained for the rest of our lives. He also answers the tough questions about assurance: What exactly is faith? What is repentance? Why are there so many warnings that seem to imply we can lose our salvation? Such issues are handled with respect to the theological rigors they require, but Greear never loses his pastoral sensitivity or a communication technique that makes this message teachable to a wide audience from teens to adults.

Why is it so difficult to know that you are saved? Greear unpacks the doctrine of assurance and answers the tough questions: What exactly is faith? What is repentance? Why are there so many warnings that seem to imply we can lose our salvation? Such issues are handled with respect to the theological rigors they require, but Greear and Gaston are careful to present the material with a pastoral sensitivity and communication technique that makes this message teachable and applicable to teens.

In this teen edition of Stop Asking Jesus into Your Heart, Greear and Gaston unpack the doctrine of assurance, answering the tough questions about assurance: What exactly is faith? What is repentance? Why are there so many warnings that seem to imply we can lose our salvation? Teens will learn that salvation rests solely on their response of repentance and faith toward the finished work of Christ.

In Jesus, Continued J.D. Greear focuses on a central truth that unites us: God wants to be vitally present in and through his people. To live empowered, fruitful lives, we have to become intimately aware of where God is moving in our lives, how he is speaking to us, and how he has gifted us.

Insightful and heart-warming, this classic book is written for those who seek to know God better. It unfolds life-impacting, biblical truths and has been called a "soul-stirring celebration of the pleasures of knowing God."

As many as 96% of Christians are not leading anyone to Jesus. Which means that the vast majority of the wider church is, at best, simply sowing. The kingdom of God, however, requires both sowing and reaping. If we neglect reaping, we will not have a healthy harvest. Jesus at the Door offers a unique tool--an Equipping Card to use with anyone you know, anywhere--and practical, step-by-step instructions, helping readers witness to friends, family, even strangers on the street. This tried-and-tested method is framed around nine points and a picture, and takes about two minutes from introduction to salvation. A Leader's Guide to Jesus at the Door explains in greater detail how to use the Equipping Card and is the perfect resource for pastors and ministry leaders who want to help their congregations or group members share the gospel effectively, partnering with the Holy Spirit and inviting users to learn to grow in Spirit-led evangelism. This book shows how you--yes, even you--can move from being a seasoned sower into a relentless reaper, living out a naturally supernatural lifestyle.

Jesus is God and we are not. Most of us get that. But what we don't always understand is that God loves us just as much as He does His son. Many times in the Old Testament, God refers to human beings as His "beloved." But when God called Jesus His beloved, Jesus did something truly remarkable: He believed Him. He lived every moment of His life fully convinced of His identity. And unlike every other person in history . . . He never forgot. In Prototype, Jonathan Martin creates a vivid understanding of what it means to be beloved by God. To completely trust, as Jesus did, that God loves you. To live life without fear, confident in your identity and purpose. To handle life's wounds as Jesus did, and to wake every day with a deep awareness of God's presence. Martin reveals a startling truth at the heart of the gospel: Jesus is our prototype. And as we discover how the knowledge of being God's beloved changed everything for Jesus--how it set Him free to live out his purpose and love God, others, and the world--it will begin to do the same for us.

The book of (Invite Jesus into your life) is Based on Faith, Hope, Love, Serve, Courage, Grace. This book make people believe that God is real and his love is real, that's why he came and died for us because of our sins, this book can help people find out that they were in the wrong way so they can stop doing wrong and come back to God (Jesus-Christ), so people can stop playing around and get Christ in their lives before he comes back on earth the second time. Please say this prayer: "Father, please show us who we really are, and what is in our hearts. Then help us apply the courage, wisdom, and discipline needed to make necessary changes, Amen". Hebrews 9:28 says: "In the same manner Christ also was offered in sacrifice once to take away the sins of many. He will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are waiting for him." Sometimes we don't know what to say when we pray but the Holy Spirit knows our heart and prays for us, God's Word illuminates our path of life and Without it we would stumble all the time, if you'll chase God instead of your dreams, all your dreams will come true. We can learn God's will by reading his Word. When you go through hard times and Satan whispers in you ear: "God doesn't love you anymore", tell him: "God is love". Remember If you call yourself a Child of God, then act like one, be one, and Live like one. Stop living a double life, God isn't looking for a part-time christian but he's looking for a full-time Christian. Disciplining yourself to do what you know is right and important, although difficult, is the highroad to pride, self-esteem, and personal satisfaction. Matthew 26:44-46 says: "He left them and prayed the same prayer once more. Finally, Jesus returned to his disciples and said, "Are you still sleeping and resting? The time has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to sinners. Get up! Let's go. The one who will betray me is already here." Believe that Jesus Christ is your savior for all your sins, if you truly believe in Jesus-Christ to be your savior for all your sins then you will go to heaven. If you believe in Jesus-Christ then you are saved and you are in salvation and you have gained God's righteousness. It matters not how much you have sinned in the past, in the present and especially in the future. Believe that Jesus-Christ is your savior and you will go to heaven forever and that is the whole truth. Just come to him, Spread the truth, Will you call upon the Lord now and ask him to save you?, Then pray this prayer: "Heavenly Father i recognize that i am a sinner and that my sin separates me from you. I confess with my mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe that God raised him from the dead, i repent of my sins, Jesus come into my heart, my life, and fill me with your Spirit. Amen". God never forgets about us, we forget to keep Him first. Our healing begins when we realize we can't do anything without Him. Christ achieved victory thru suffering. Though we suffer, we will reign. Eternity is in our grasp. Amen !

More than ten million readers have enjoyed Robert Boyd Munger's spiritually challenging meditation on Christian discipleship. Imagining what it would be like to have Jesus come to the home of our hearts, Munger moves room by room considering what Christ desires for us. In the living room we prepare to meet Christ daily. In the dining room we examine together what appetites should and should not control us. We even explore the closets in our lives that Christ can help us clean out. Munger's practical and profound booklet (now revised and expanded) helps you give Christ control over all of your life.
