The House On East 88th
The House on East 88th
Street is a children's book
written by Bernard Waber first published in 1962. The book is the first in the Lyle the Crocodile series.
The story is about a family
named the Primms who move into an old Victorian brownstone, only to find a performing crocodile named Lyle living in the bathtub.
At first they are horrified,
but they learn to love him
and accept him into their family.

but really began to love him as he is an artist and can perform many tricks.

The first book in the Lyle series, this tells the story of how the Primms found Lyle the Crocodile in the bathtub of their new home.

Lyle is afraid of losing his family forever after he is taken from their New York apartment and committed to a zoo.

Lyle, the crocodile, thought everyone loved him until the day he received a hate note from an anonymous despiser.

Street with the Primms to go in search of his mother at the urging of his former employer Hector P. Valenti, star of stage and screen.

An anteater's mother tells of her trials with her questioning, complaining, messy, forgetful, choosy, and lovable son.

When the Primm family moved into their new house, they didn't expect to find a large green crocodile in their bathtub.
