Turn of Mind (Laplante) — LitLovers

"What bumps Turn of Mind up into the exalted Daphne Du Maurier/Ruth Rendell category of 'literary thriller' is LaPlante's fearless and compassionate investigation into the erosion of her main character's mind. . . . Turn of Mind reads as a series of fragmentary-but-illuminating first-person conversations between Dr. White and various other characters. . . . In the short space of these dialogues, Dr. White's grip on reality fades in and out, like an iffy radio frequency and time ...
